NATIVE SONS' RITE

Judge Norris Honored At School Dedication Ceremonies

Before an audience of fraternal and educational dignitaries and residents of Centerville, the town's most distinguished son this week accepted with modesty the honor of having a school named after him.

Judge Allen G. Norris, descendant of a family whose roots date back more than a century here, declared at rites Sunday afternoon in the $300,000 Allen G. Norris School on Thornton Avenue:

"I'm really embarrassed by the honor. There are many more former trustees more worthy of it than I."

He traced the history of the Centerville School District, naming such trustees as Judge John Mattos, Frank Dusterberry, and Mrs. Isabelle Coit.

Judge Norris, who heads the county's juvenile court, noted in more than 50 years, the district has had only two superintendents: the late Joseph Dias and the present superintendent, Tom Maloney.

"This attests to the stability of our community," the judge asserted.

He was introduced by Maloney, who commented that a plaque to be placed on the building dedicates it to "Truth, Liberty and Toleration." Said Maloney:

"These are principles to which Judge Norris has dedicated his life."

Grand officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West took charge of the actual dedication. With sand, water and cement brought from all of California's 58 counties, they mixed mortar in which to set the plaque.

A brief but official meeting of the Grand Parlor was convened on the spot by Grand President David Stuart, who flew here from San Bernardino for the occasion.

Stuart spoke of the order's principles, and how Judge Norris, long prominent in Native Sons affairs, has upheld them. He stressed the importance of educating today's children to be tomorrow's leaders.

Invocation was delivered by Father Thomas P. Gilbert of Newark's St. Edward's Catholic Church. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Arthur Freeman, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church.

The colors were presented by a National Guard color-guard headed by Sgt. John Tarpley. The team was from Centerville's Battery C, 629th Field Artillery.

Music was furnished by the Washington Hi band under direction of William E. Cook.

Following the ceremonies, the Centerville PTA, headed by Mrs. John Silva was host for refreshments in the school's handsome multi-purpose room.

Trustees were on hand for the dedication and for them Clerk Allan Walton delivered a brief eulogy of Judge Norris, who served on the board for 27 years before his elevation to the superior bench.

A committee chairmanned by Albert A. Silveria arranged the ceremonies on behalf of Washington Parlor, NSGW, of which Judge Norris has been recording secretary for nearly 30 years.

Pop Gets Wheels; They're His Own

The legs of J. V. Goold, principal of Washington Hi and overseer of a 40-acre, $3,000,000 plant, have bowed to the boom.

Goold told trustees last week he can't cover the grounds on foot as he used to when the school had only 500 or 600 pupils.

Now he uses a bicycle. But the veteran "pop" was quick to add:

"It's not taxpayer transportation — it's my own bicycle."

Bottenbergs Hurt In Freeway Crash

Mission San Jose's postmaster, Lois Bottenberg, and her husband Glenn were painfully injured in an auto accident last Thursday on the Freeway.

En route to Oakland, a car crashed into the rear of their light pickup. Mrs. Bottenberg suffered severe scalp lacerations and possible broken ribs, while her spouse had his nose broken.

Mrs. Bottenberg is recovering at home after treatment at an Oakland hospital.

Decoto Wants Water Supply For Industry

Disturbed over the prospect that lack of water supply may cause industries to bypass their community, members of the Decoto Chamber of Commerce last week agreed to call a meeting of local water officials at the December meeting.

They will be asked to consider how Decoto can be given adequate water, and when.

On suggestion of Ken Garcia, representatives should include the Citizens' Utilities Co., which supplies the town as well as Niles; plus the Township-wide Alameda County Water District.

The request came after a report by Dr. Harold Schoenfeld, chairman of a committee to attract new industries to Decoto. Said he:

His committee met with a representative from Metropolitan Oakland Area Chamber of Commerce in an effort to discover what Decoto might do to attract industry to its area.

"We were told," Dr. Schoenfeld said, "that Ford was lost to the Decoto-Alvarado area because we have no water supply, other than town wells, and because of lack of sewer facilities. Other industries are inspecting the area, but they face the same problems."

Schoenfeld said the committee felt the sewer problem had been solved with the merger of Decoto and Union Sanitary districts. The need for water still is urgent.

Irvington Man Slays Wife In Santa Clara As Son Looks On

An Irvington chemical worker followed his estranged wife to Santa Clara last Saturday, and shot her to death before the horrified eyes of their 6-year-old son.

Then the enraged husband, Joseph S. Pollins, 38, turned the gun on himself. He is clinging to life in a San Jose hospital.

Victim of Pollins' murderous outbreak was his wife of eight years, Joyce, 27.

Only the day before she had left their home at 142 Mission St., Irvington, to escape Pollins' temper and drinking, relatives said. She rented an apartment in Santa Clara, taking their son, Stanley, with her.

Saturday afternoon Pollins followed them to the apartment. While the boy played in the yard outside he strode into the living room where Joyce was sitting on a divan. According to stanley, who watched through a screen door, his father said:

"I've missed the boy." Then he drew a 38-caliber service revolver from his belt and opened fire. The first bullet struck her in the chest. She slumped to the floor crying to Stanley to call the police. Pollins then shot her in the arm and finally in the head. Then he placed the pistol under his chin and pulled the trigger.

Stanley ran screaming to neighbors who summoned police. When they arrived, Mrs. Pollins was dead. Her husband was taken to a hospital.

The couple had been separated for six weeks, and Mrs. Pollins had filed suit for divorce. It was scheduled to have been granted this week.

In Centerville, sheriff's deputies recalled being summond to the couple's Irvington home twice to quell a domestic row-once in March, 1951, and more recently on October 6. Mrs. Pollins each time refused to sign charges against her mate.

Pollins had been working at a Newark chemical factory, while since their estrangement, Mrs. Pollins was employed at a Centerville cannery.

In the tragedy, Pollins replayed the role of a former employer: Tom Talle, wealthy Los Altos cattleman, who was convicted of shooting his wife Madge in 1949. Pollins was formerly a chauffeur for Talle, and was a defense witness at Talle's 1950 trial.

HILLVIEW NEXT?

Hayward 'Invades' Township

Treeview, Rousseau Tracts Annex

The City of Hayward officially moved into Washington Township Friday, and there were strong hints it might annex Hillview Crest next.

Friday's peaceful invasion took the form of the city's annexing two large tracts north of Decoto—Treeview and the Rousseau tract next to the Hayward Municipal Golf Course.

About half of each subdivision lies in Washington Township. They will contain nearly 2000 homes when completed.

Subdividers in both cases had asked to be annexed, principally to obtain water and sewer service from the city.

Meantime one group of Hillview Cresters was preparing to circulate petitions asking that Hayward take them too. The annexation of the Rousseau tract places Hayward City Limits next to Hillview Crest.

The week previous, Don Patterson, 1448 York Drive, appeared before the Hayward City Council to sound out that body on annexation. Mayor W. O. Wilson, Manager Lohn Ficklin and three councilmen asked interested questions for some time, but made no promises. However Wilson declared:

"I think if a request were put to the council to (annex Hillview) they would do it."

Patterson said "80 percent" of the tract residents favor annexation. He pointed out Hillview already gets water, sewers and mail from Hayward, though sewer and water service costs far more than in the city. He added "it costs more to stay out than to come in."

Annexation would not mean schools and fire protection, now obtained from Decoto, would be changed, it was agreed.

Patterson said his group plans to explain its stand before Township chambers of commerce.

Irvington To Get Bigger Postoffice

Bids to lease a building for an enlarged Irvington postoffice have been called for December 10.

Postal Inspector W. B. Mouser, in Oakland, wants owners to set prices for leases up to 10 years on a 3500-square-foot building.

The present postoffice, located on Broadway, is rapidly becoming too small to handle the increased volume of business for booming Irvington, according to Acting Postmaster Ernest Vayssie.

He reported 359 postboxes rented, with 350 additional needed. There are 270 rural route boxes.

2 Centers Vie For Irvington Zoning Okeh

Rival shopping-center developers saw their petitions for super-stores north of Irvington tabled Monday by the County Planning Commission.

Dearborn Development Co., a Stanley Davis subsidiary, represented by Ted Leslie and Jack Stevenson, wanted 75 acres zoned for retail business at PG&E Road and Highway 17.

Sunnyacres Development Co., represented by Don Colvin, wanted 15 acres similarly redesignated north of the grammar school. This has been endorsed by the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.

The planners heard the claims, then agreed to defer action on both until November 24. They said they want to hear more opinion from the community, including the chamber of commerce.

Stevenson said his center would serve a population of more than 50,000 — expected in the Township by 1960.

Colvin said he will bring in 15 stores, with 750 parking spaces.

Stevenson on Tuesday received permission from the Irvington chamber to bring a team of shopping-center experts to address the group next week.

In other action, the commission denied a petition by the firm of Rahles & Rahles to reduce 91 lots between Irvington and Mission San Jose from 8000-foot minimum size to 6500 square feet.

Model Home Thieves Busy

Model home burglars were busy in Washington Township again over the weekend with more than $800 worth of furnishings and appliances reported stolen in Centerville and in Niles.

From a house at 293 Cabrillo Drive, intruders took lamps, drapes, pictures and bedding valued at about $300.

From one at 220 Hillview Dr., Niles, appliances, furniture and a television set valued at $500 were stolen.

Sheriff's officers are investigating.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Centerville Food Market In New $150,000 Home

The Township's largest and finest independent market will open today with familiar faces behind the counters.

It is the $150,000 Centerville Food Market, next door to the well-known market by that name on Main Street.

Owner-manager is George Gong, World War II Air Force veteran and operator of the successful Centerville Food Market for the past eight years.

Gong has gone all-out to provide convenient and quick downtown shopping for Townshippers. A 107-car parking lot next door to and in the rear of the establishment occupies property purchased several years ago. The market has four checking stands.

George is assisted in the meat department by his brother Bill.

Operating the new liquor department is Claire Bettencourt, well-known native of Newark and former manager of the MacMarr store in Centerville. Bettencourt left that establishment in 1938 to open his own grocery at Machado's Corners. In 1946 he moved to a new store in Hayward.

The Centerville Food Market will be open for business starting today (Thursday) and will hold a gala grand opening on November 18, according to the owner.

Irv'gton Flood Bids Out On Laguna Creek

Plans for the first flood-control works around Irvington are out for bid this week.

James Vivrette, engineer for the County Flood Control District, said the work, expected to cost around $40,000, will deepen and channel Laguna Creek south of the town and past the Conway & Culligan property.

Vivrette said work upstream to the Stivers Lagoon now is waiting on purchase of right-of-way land. The creek is a major source of Irvington's flood problems in wet years, such as the winter of 1951-2.

Likewise scheduled are drainage canals west of Warm Springs, to carry storm waters to the Bay from the railroad tracks. Plans for these are nearly complete.

The work is being done under a $1,736,000 bond issue for Zone 6, voted last year.

Crusade Here Nets $27,027; At Mid-Mark

The United Crusade in Washington Township was over the halfway hump this week, with $27,027 collected.

Chairman Don DeForest reported today that the sum represents 50.3 percent of the Township's allotted goal. However it is some $2000 more than 1953's total receipts.

Commerce and Industry, headed by Gordon Dubuque, has accounted for the lion's share, or $19,731, DeForest said. This is $4000 more than last year, and several firms are yet to report.

Residential solicitation, under Mrs. Byrde Duffey, came up with $3909, also an improvement over 1953. This work is 90 per cent done, DeForest estimated.

Schools and teachers under Jack MacGregor contributed $1797, with 95 percent accounted for. Small business, a committee headed by Peter D. Juhl, has sent in $1600. This category is going the slowest, with 70 per cent solicited.

DeForest said Washington Township's contribution is slightly below that of the entire East Bay, goal-wise. The East Bay United Crusade had reported a total collection of $2,474,454, or 64.1 percent of its goal, he added.

Washington Township's goal was $53,700.

DeForest asked Townshippers who haven't been solicited to mail checks to United Crusade, 337 Thirteenth St., Oakland.

13 Named For Mission C. of C.

Thirteen members of the Mission San Jose Chamber of Commerce this week were nominated for nine directorships.

The candidates will be voted upon in December. Then they will elect officers for the chamber.

The 13 are: Roy Dean, John Amaral, Bob Underwood, Michael Overacker, Joe Reis, Gregg Vernon, Walter Chrysler, Herman Medeiros, Russ Wilber William Wingett, Dr. Robert Fisher, Lois Bottenberg, and Warren Wilson.

Defer Quarries

Action on a proposed county quarry ordinance was continued until January 10 this week by the Board of Supervisors. A hearing was continued until that date.

Catholic Census Begins In Newark

This week Parishioners of St. Edward's Catholic Church in Newark are busy ringing door-bells, taking a census of Catholic people in the area.

Father Thomas Gilbert, pastor of St. Edwards, announced to the congregation Sunday that the authorities have ordered this census, in order to determine the size of a much-needed new St. Edward's Church.

"With the exact number of Catholic people in Newark at the present being projected into the future on a basis of known building plans underway, the approximate size of the New St. Edward's Church can be determined," Father Gilbert explained.

A new location for the future St. Edward's was acquired when the Archdiocese obtained 6½ acres on Thornton Ave., at the junction of Mayhew's Landing Road. This location was obtained through the Milani family, who donated one acre in memory of their parents.

It is designed as the site of the new St. Edward's Plant, which will include a new Church, Parish House, Hall, School and Convent and Playground for the school.

Each parishioner is being assigned one square block

'City' Committee

The Citizens Committee studying incorporation of Newark will meet at the Newark grammer school at 8 p.m. on Friday, November 12, according to chairman Gordon Cotton.

The group will hear subcommittee reports on progress made and recomendations for a "base on which to start the study" by the planning subcommittee.

Fumble On Goal Hurts Locals

Huskies Come Close But Drop Thriller To Mt. View, 14-13; Play Poly Today

By JERRY SANFORD

Mountain View handed the luckless Washington Huskies their fourth loss of the season last Friday night as they squeezed out a 14-13 decision. It was the first win of the season for the Eagles.

Don Biggie put the Eagles in front before a minute had been played in the contest as he rambled 58 yards around end to paydirt on the first play of the game. Andy Ardito booted the extra point, and his second conversion later proved to be the margin of victory.

Halfback Fletcher took ensuing kickoff on his own 15 but was downed immediately. Fullback Ron Masuda, back in action after an absence of three weeks, broke through for 12 yards and a first down after Fletcher had gone for a gain of 6. Two plays later QB Tino Rangel hit Ken Galloway with a short pass and the lanky end reached the Eagles' 49 yard line before being stopped. Masuda then cut around left end to the 25 yard line. The Huskies marched down to the 1 yard line and Rangel went over for the score. Rangel failed to boot the conversion.

Charlie Cooper racked up Mountain View's second TD midway in the second quarter, climaxing a 60-yard drive by the Eagles. Ardito then booted the conversion that spelled defeat for the Huskies.

Washington threatened to score in the closing seconds of the first half as they drove all the way down to the 1 yard line. But Rangel was hit as he handed off, and the ball squirted back to the 9-yard line. The Huskies were powerless to put it over in the few seconds left.

The third quarter was a see-saw battle in which neither team could score, although both threatened. The Huskies dominated throughout, with good runs by Fletcher and Masuda.

Rangel added the Huskies' second TD with five minutes left in the game when he went over from 2 yards out. Rangel then passed to end Craig Bellati for the conversion.

The score climaxed a 72-yard line drive in 13 plays by the Orange and Black. But the Eagles held onto the back and kicked Washington deep into its own territory as time ran out.

Mountain View and Washington now have identical 1-4 records in league play. An unusual fact about the Huskies' four losses is that the opposing team has either scored by running the opening kickoff back for a tally or have scored on the very first play from scrimmage in each of the contests.

Against Fremont it was Phil Cordero who ran the opening kickoff back for a TD as his team went on to post a 32-6 victory. James Lick's Larry Fisher greeted the Huskies with a 60-yard paydirt run on the first play of the game. Santa Clara's Ray Araujo picked up a Washington fumble on the opening kickoff and galloped 35 yards for the score. Friday it was Biggie who turned the trick for the Eagles.

In other games played last Friday, Campbell defeated the James Lick Comets by a score of 12-0, and Santa Clara romped to a 27-6 victory over the Balboa JV's in a practice game.

Los Gatos pulled the upset of the year as they squeezed by the powerful Fremont Indians by a 7-6 score at Sunnyvale. The Wildcats scored on a 98-yard pass play, Earl Green to Sunny Sparks, with a little more than 30 seconds remaining in the game. Halfback Bud Smith tallied the Indians' only TD when he raced 65 yards to score on the first play of the game. Bud Young was the hero and Charles Muraldo the goat as Young calmly booted the Wildcat conversion in the closing seconds. Muraldo missed Fremont's conversion which did not seem important at that stage.

The Huskies entertain Poly Hi of San Francisco in a practiced for 12 o'clock for the "B" game and 2:00 p.m. for the varsity.

Friday's score by quarters:

Washington	6	0	0	7—13
Mt. View	7	7	0	0—14

Mt. View scoring: TD—Biggie, Cooper. PAT—Audito, 2.

Washington scoring: TD—Rangel 2. PAT—Bellati.

Jinx? Pups Also Edged, 14-13, By Mt. View 'B's'

By JERRY SANFORD

Paced by fullback Ken Hoshi and halfback Domingo Roldan, the Mountain View "B's" narrowly edged the Washington High Puppies 14-13 last Friday night in a hard-fought battle.

Stan Rebello put Washington ahead on the first play of the second quarter as he bulled his way over the goal from the one yard line. Robello ran the conversion over to put the Pups ahead, 7-0.

Washington then recovered a Mountain View fumble on the kickoff on the Eaglet 37 yard line. Johnny Adams broke through for 5 yards on the first play. Adams then threw a short pass intended for Arnold Hernandez. Ken Hoshi intercepted on his own 30-yard line and outran the Pup defenders the remaining 70 yards to score. The conversion was good and the game was tied 7-7.

Roldan put the Eaglets in the lead with only 15 seconds left to play in the second half on a pass play which covered 68 yards. The extra point was added and Mountain View left the field at halftime with a 14-7 lead.

Ed Marin tallied the Pups second touchdown in the last few minutes of the final quarter as he plowed through from 9 yards out. Rebello was stopped short of the goal on the conversion attempt. The missed conversion proved to be the narrow margin of victory.

'C' Hoopsters Win Again, Top Loop

Coach Don Wolfe's C basketball team remained on top of the SCVAL, still undefeated, as they breezed pass the Los Gatos C's 43-35 for their fifth straight league victory last Thursday.

Eddie Santos and Hiro Kurotori sparked the C's; Santos with 13 points and Kurotori with 11. Larry Rugani led the losers with 16.

The Los Gatos D's were victorious over Washington by a 44-to-34 score. Frank Hendricks had 14 for Los Gatos and Bringuel hit for 13. Rich Scardighli led the scoring for Washington with 10 points.

Washington's C's were assured of at least a co-championship as the Campbell C's were defeated by James Lick last week. Washington now has a 5-0 record and Campbell, 4-1.

Washington travels to Campbell this week for their final game of the season. Even if the Orange and Black should lose they still have a chance for the Championship because the Buccaneers do not end their season until next week.

Santos and Kurotori were elected season cocaptains for the C's for the year and Dennis McKenzie and Leroy Tacang for the D's.

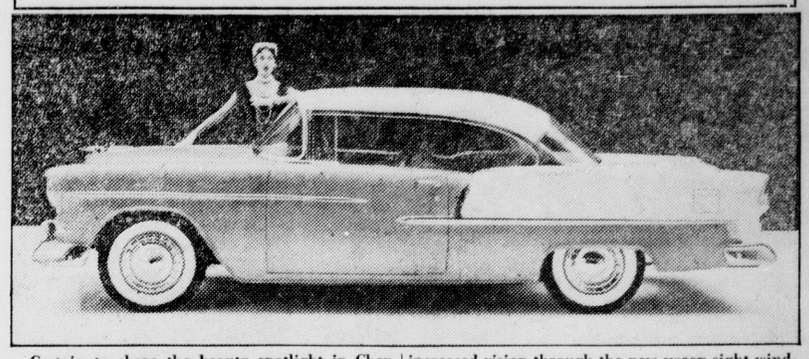
Two-Tone Styling Adds Sparkle to Sport Coupe



Certain to share the beauty spotlight in Chevrolet's latest line of passenger car models is the Bel Air sport coupe, completely re-styled for 1955. Among noteworthy features in the above view are the broad, low grille and hood lines, appreciably increased vision through the new sweep-sight windshield, and the effect of fleetness imparted by chrome molding strips. This special two-tone color styling will be available on Bel Air sport coupes and convertibles among the 14 models.

SCRAPPY—Weighing only 125 pounds, Halfback Eddie Fletcher still provides one of Washington's best attacking threats.

$38,000 In Bank of America Yule Checks Here

Evidence that the Yuletide season is just around the corner was given today as the distribution of Bank of America Christmas Club checks totaling more than $38,000 to many happy residents of Washington Township.

This was announced by Loren C. Marriott, manager of the Centerville Branch.

Marriott said that this year the Bank of America will send out 400,000 Christmas Club checks throughout the state, totaling $48,000,000, to those people who have followed the popular Christmas savings plan during the past 12 months. This is a marked increase over the $40,000,000 distributed to 336,000 Californians last year.

Although the Christmas Club funds are used primarily for gift shopping, Marriott stated, they also have been found to be an excellent means to use in the payment of taxes.

Irvington Signs Lack $ To Move

Irvington's town signs had roosting places this week, but the chamber of commerce reported it needs $225 to move them.

The north sign was okehed for a site at PG&E and Highway 17, said Committeeman Jack Stevenson; while the south sign can be placed 100 feet north of Landing Road.

But he added it will take $225 to reinstall the electric signs, which the chamber wants moved because Irvington has grown past their present locations. Nobody suggested where the money might be raised.

WUHS To Price New School Bus

A badly-needed bus to carry Washington Hi students may be purchased shortly.

High School trustees last week authorized Supt. J. V. Goold to price busses, in hope they can be bought on time payments until new tax money is received next fall.

The school now has nine busses, but most are operated on a shuttle basis to carry the school's increased population, and Goold has for some time been afraid service would break down if any busses did.

In a report to the trustees, Night School Principal Judson Taylor reported enrollment in his classes has reached 353, as compared to last year's 266 students. Expense of operation was reported to be $1,614 with state aid funds returning $1,456, and fees for registration netting $229.

The principal said some courses already had been dropped, and other curtailments are planned to bring the budget into balance.

Most financially - successful course at the evening school, is the Monday night training sessions of Washington Township Sheriff's Reserve. It has netted the evening school almost $50.

It was announced that buildings at the school annex are now 66.4 per cent complete.

1955 Plymouths, Chryslers To Be Shown Here Wed.

Plymouth's bigger and more powerful 1955 model cars will be displayed by dealers throughout the nation beginning Wednesday, November 17, Lloyd and V. H. Edgren, Plymouth dealers here announced today.

The new Chryslers also will be shown at the same time.

The 1955 Plymouths are entirely new, both in styling and engineering detail, the Edgrens said. They are lower, longer and wider than previous Plymouth cars. Say the brothers:

"They are the most powerful cars Plymouth ever built. The 1955 engines are a 117-horsepower PowerFlow six, a 157-horsepower Hy-Fire V-8 and a 167-horsepower Hy-Fire V-8. The latter engine also is available with a four-barrel carburetor and special manifold which increases its horsepower to 177.

"Plymouth offers as optional equipment a full range of automatic and power assist devices. They include PowerFlite fully automatic no clutch transmission, a new design coaxial full-time power steering, power brakes, power-operated front seat adjustments, power-operated window regulators, and adjustable speed electric windshield wipers. Air conditioning by Airtemp also is available as special equipment.

The 1955 line is made up of 12 models, including for the first time four-door versions of the Plymouth Suburban, the all steel body station wagon type car which Plymouth pioneered in 1949.

"The 1955 models are all new in a more basic sense than at any previous new model introduction in the company's history.

"The company started three years ago to design them," they said. "Everything is new. This applies not only to their styling and interior decor but also to the body structural details, the frame, the suspension system, the interior ventilating and heating system and many other features. It literally is true that our 1955 models are new from bumper to bumper."

Editor, Sir:

May this note convey my deep appreciation for the generous support which your fine newspaper has extended to us during the period of our United Effort Program and for your personal financial contribution.

It is indeed gratifyng to know that our community can boast of citizens such as yourself who reccgnize civic needs and who so willingly and generously support such causes financially and morally.

Again may I express my gratitude and that of our entire Program Committee.

Very truly yours,

Editor Sir:

I don't know if you consider this news but I surely do. Halloween night many children rang our bell but one little girl came and said "I don't want a treat, I came to treat you," and she handed me a sucker.

The school bus stops at my corner each morning and I make it my duty to go out and stand with them to chat. I certainly feel well paid off for the time spent with them. There is a song I hear "Little things mean a lot." How true! The little girl is Karen Blackett from Elliott St.

Don Santo Sets Talent Search In Township

Don Santo, popular Bay area master of ceremonies, and show producer currently appearing weekly at the Center Theatre, Centerville, is planning a search for talent covering the entire South Alameda County.

Says Santo, "Many communities are chockful of talented people who lack the opportunity to show to advantage their possibilities for stardom. My aim is to give these youngsters a chance to perform under proper condtions and surroundings, and those possessing star talent a chance to meet the right people."

A group of four theatres, located at different points in Alameda County will present Santo's weekly talent shows. The weekly winners will compete in a grand finals to decide the winners. An "Oscar Junior" trophy will be awarded the winner. This trophy is a replica of the original Oscar given yearly to the outstanding actor and actress in Hollywood pictures.

Santo first introduced this award years ago when he presented his Amateur Frolics at a downtown theatre. The title of 'Outstanding Talented Personality' will go with this award. There will also be other prizes including, $100.00 in cash, a diamond wrist watch, a diamond ring, a motion picture camera, fifty professional photographs, a ladies' or mans suit of clothes, and a free trip to New York City by air transport, and an appearance on Arthur Godfreys "Talent Scouts."

Santo is accredited with helping many of today's stars up the ladder to success. A youngster of twelve named Frances Gum was discovered years ago, singing in Los Angeles, Santo presented her in his Hollywood Ebell Frolics and she was immediately signed to a motion picture contract. Her name today is Judy Garland! Others are Jane Powell, Ginger Rogers. Even Chef Cardini of KGO TV fame, was discovered by Santo while cooking at a Oakland restaurant. Santo believes that right here in our own backyard may be another Judy Garland, or a Gene Kelly.

If you can sing, dance, or entertain in any way, attend auditions to be held at the following theatres: Every week on Saturday morning, Hayward Theatre, 9:00 to 10:45 A. M. Saturday afternoons 1:00 to 3:30 P. M. Center Theatre, Centerville, and Sunday afternoon from 12 to 3:00 P. M. Moose Club Theatre 14th St and Alice in Oakland.

St. Brigid's Church in San Francisco is constructed of slabs of hewn granite that served as pedestrian crossings in the days of cobblestone streets.

Under certain conditions the Central Valley Water Project pumping plant near Tracy will draw water from as far as 20 miles downstream in the Sacramento-San Joaquin delta.

Editor Sir:

I noticed your mention of the shortage of names for new streets in the Township. Well, I'm coming up with just the kind of an idea you'd expect from one of my profession. When the developers have finished with the affixing of their family names - why not use names which will serve the three-fold purpose of 1. Providing a large supply. 2. Providing an unusual and distinctive touch. 3. Assisting our religious education. I refer, of course, to the books of the Bible.

I have never heard of this being done eleswhere. Why can't we establish a 'first'? It's true that some of the names are rather unwieldly, but when a lad is struggling with Deuteronomy, he's improving his Bible knowledge, his spelling, pronounciation and he will find pride in the realization that his street name isn't something common and routine. Think of the infinite possibilities of combinations, etc.

However, where the short and simple are desired, such a quartet as Matthew, Mark, Luke and John can be used. A distinctive duo would be 1st Peter and 2nd Peter. There are innumerable streets named Peter, no doubt. But where have you ever seen a 1st Peter street? Malachi, Habbakuk Zephaniah- these are names to conjure with. We'd be living in an area where our ingenuity and resourcefulness has taken us above the slavish pattern of using the same old weather-beaten, prosaic names which designate the avenues of the country's traffic just about everywhere else.

Supervisor Stanley Explains Record Budget

Supervisor Chester E. Stanley, explaining the record county budget which this fall boosted basic property taxes 15 cents per $100, today released the following explanation:

"The Alameda County Board of Supervisors, in reviewing the preliminary budget during the month of June made every effort to decrease expenditures in order to minimize tax increases. It feels that the taxpayers should be aware of the following facts:

"(1) A taxpayer's letter from Louis J. Breuner, Chairman of the Alameda County Welfare Commission, requested that additional funds in the amount of $753,619 be set up in the final budget. This was agreed upon by the Welfare Commission, as it believes that the employment and welfare conditions in Alameda County necessitate this increase for continued sound operation.

"(2) Approval by the State Legislature of two new Superior Courts, based on the increased number of cases, will entail additional expenditures for a full year's operation of approximately $38,500.

"(3) Legislative control of salaries and number of positions for Municipal Courts has increased the budget appreciably. Personnel costs, combined with fixed operating costs of the courts, have added $84,900. Although the total cost this fiscal year will be offset by additional revenues, it will in no way reimburse the County for the program established by the vote of the people. The Board vigorously campaigned at the last session of the Legislature to have these positions and salaries controlled by the Supervisors, who must provide the funds. Although joined in this request by the League of California Cities and the State Supervisors Association, no favorable action was taken.

"(4) The reappraisal program, long advocated by the State Board of Equalization and Alameda County taxpayers, is reaching the completion stage. Nevertheless, $424,845 will still be spent in the 1954-55 fiscal year for this purpose.

"(5) The pension program for Alameda County employees, adopted by the State Legislature, provides for an increase of $783,139 over the previous fiscal year.

"(6) The maintenance and operation budget of Alameda County departments were held to a minimum upon recommendation of the County Administrator's office. The Board reduced these accounts approximately $200,000. In spite of this reduction, such mandatory items as insurance, utilities and contractural services and costs fixed by the State have again increased.

"(7) Since the County Chapter stipulates that wages must be paid at least equal to the prevailing wages in private employment, studies were authorized by the Board and comparable salaries established in instances where rates were not equal to private industry.

"(8) The building program of Alameda County has been progressing on a pay-as-you-go basis and the program this year includes construction of an emergency hospital and outpatient clinic amounting to $1,600,000. The architect estimated this project to cost $2,000,000. The Board deferred the construction of an auditorium in connection with this building, estimated at $200,000.

"(9) Other necessary County facilities were authorized, such as the Garage building, purchase of land in Eden Township for a County office building and funds to provide for architectural fees for other buildings on a pay-as-you-go basis.

"(10) The Welfare Commission has requested that $390,000 be placed in this year's budget to provide for necessary expansion. The State has concurred in this program and will reimburse the County 46%, thus participating in the construction cost with the Federal and County government.

"(11) A contract has been awarded and $20,000 provided to establish a proper house numbering system in southern Alameda County, long advocated by citizens of that area.

"(12) Costs for certain departments such as hospitals, Health, Probation, Sheriff, Superior and Municipal Courts, Welfare, Assessor and County Clerk have continued to rise due to increased public demands for services, increased population and commitments to public institutions, all of which are mandatory according to State law.

"(13) Payments to cities for care of prisoners on a contractural basis as the result of the Municipal Court act will increase the cost to the County for operation of these courts an additional $75,000."

Stanley said the auditor was instructed to cut about $240,000 from funds for unfilled jobs and several capital outlays.

Construction of the Eden Township office building also was deferred for one year.

Then the Board:

1. Decided to raise the welfare budget $610,700 "in the light of present welfare and employment conditions,"

2. Agreed not to cut county salaries.

3. Appropriated $1,600,000 for an emergency and out-patient wing at Highland Hospital.

4. Decided to expand Fairmont Hospital and the Welfare Building, and the microwave radio station for the sheriff, but voted to stop operating Fairmont's dairy and poultry farm. Concluded Stanley:

"In all cases where reductions or deletions could be made, without impairing efficiency or undermining public health and safety, such action was taken."

CONGRATULATIONS—Marlene Dutra, Supt. J. V. Goold.

Marlene Dutra Is W.U.H.S. 'Citizen'

Marlene Dutra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dutra of Irvington, has been selected as Washington Union High School's "Good Citizen" in a contest sponsored by the Daughters of the America Revolution.

Girls displaying outstanding qualities of citizenship were nominated by their senior classmates and three were elected for consideration by a faculty committee headed by Judson Taylor, senior class counselor. Marlene was chosen by this committe to be the school's entry in further competition with girls from other high schools. She will receive a medal as recognition of her selection and will take an examination in American history as a basis for additional awards.

Marlene is currently secretary of the student body and holds membership in several other organizations including the California Scholarship Federation and the Girls Athletic Association. She has previously served as secretary of the Sophomore class, hospitality chairman of the Girls' League, and treasurer of the C.S.F.

There are at least two resident doctors on the premises of Children's Hospital of the East Bay at all times.

Jaysees To Give Yule Baskets

The Washington Township Junior Chamber of Commerce last week voted to adopt a Christmas Basket campaign for local needy families.

The Jaysees plan to place containers for contributions of canned goods in every grocery store in Washington township. They asked the cooperation of shoppers in helping to provide holiday food for those in need.

The committee, which is headed by Geoffrey Steele, also will seek contributions from canneries within the township and from food producers here.

The club planned a special "membership drive meeting," to be held November 18.

A recent paper drive, sponsored by the Jaysees for benefit of Boy Scout troops in Irvington, Centerville and Niles, accumulated approximately 20 tons of paper, chairman Tom McFadyen announced.

The drive netted 18,000 pounds from Centerville, 13,000 pounds from Niles and 8,000 pounds from Irvington, he reported.

ANNUAL BALL SAT., DEC. 4 WARM SPRINGS FIRE DEPT.

Anthony Brazil, fire chief of Warm Springs Fire Department, called at the News-Register office Monday, and announced the coming 7th annual dance of the Warm Springs Fire Department.

The event will take place on Saturday evening, December 4, at Warm Springs Schoolhouse. As usual the music will be of the best, with High Tones Orchestra promising to be a drawing card, judging from the way they brought crowds to many recent dances near here.

When you consider what this fire department does to save life and property, being on call all hours of the day and night, it is no wonder that year after year the whole southern end of the Township, including Milpitas and San Jose guests, attend. And this will the case on December 4.

Names of committees will be announced next week.

Cancer-Fight Center Opens In Hayward

Operation of a Hayward unit office of the Alameda County Branch of the American Cancer Society, serving the people of Eden and Washington Townships began this week with the center located in the George Oakes Building at 920 "A" Street, in Hayward, next to Montgomery-Ward store.

The cancer information office, open Mondays through Fridays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., is staffed by members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary No. 1882. Mrs. E. A. Paddock of San Lorenzo is chairman of the project, and Mrs. A. W. Fehl of Hayward is vice-chairman.

The cancer information center will distribute educational literature, provide sickroom supplies for needy cancer patients, schedule public showings of American Cancer Society films and offer physician referral services.

Can't Sleep?
Here's Wonderful News

Do you worry about your sleep . . . uncertain whether tonight will be another of those long, endless nights you dread? Now at last, you can stop worrying . . . and start sleeping! Science, you see, has found a natural way to help ease nervous tension — one of the principal causes of insomnia — without the use of habit-forming drugs.

Knowing that calcium is needed for efficient heart and muscle action and proper functioning of the nerves, scientists looked to milk — the only practical food source of calcium — for a solution to sleeplessness. They studied its effects in relieving the nervous tension of both children and adults. Test results showed that the inclusion of calcium-rich milk in the diet reduced fatigue and strain.

Now you can safeguard your sleep just by drinking two or three glasses of milk a day. They will provide the calcium intake needed to assure sound, restful sleep. Why not try a glass of milk at bedtime tonight? Whether you prefer it warm or cold, milk is nature's way to help you relax and sleep.

INSIDE TOWNSHIP INDUSTRIES

By HARRIET GITTINGS

The Bulldog Pallet Company, on Haley Road, near Newark has been in Washington Township for only twenty months, but has brought a yearly payroll of $200,000 and employment to as many as sixty-three men during its peak season, when pallets are produced at the rate of 1200 a day.

Constructing wooden platforms used to facilitate handling of material by lift trucks, the Bulldog Pallet Company takes Douglas Fir from Northern California and Oregon, as well as hardwood dunnage used in shipping from the Southern states, and in several complicated operations converts them into pallets for use by canneries all over California. Nothing is wasted in the process, since the sawdust goes to local dairies, and the scrap lumber is sent to a fiberboard manufacturer.

According to President Richard Duff, the plant employs about thirty-three men the year around, with most of them coming from this immmediate area. Their work is made easier through the use of automatic nailers and a variety of powered saws and planes. Included in the operational equipment is an Equalizer Saw, designed by Roy Sjolund, general manager in charge of production. There is also an unusual printer, that places the name of the company destined to use the pallet on each stringer.

Perhaps the most unique operation is done by the Tube-lok Fastener, which has received national attention. This is said to be the first innovation in wood-fastening in 100 years, and uses a simple hollow rivet, counter-sunk with a hydraulic press. The pallets made with this new fastener last two-and-a-half times longer than the conventional bolted type, Duff says.

Gordon W. Dennis, who handles sales, reports that the Army and Navy pioneered in the use of pallets during the war, and the industry is only a little more than eight years old. Hiring many Township people, including Mrs. Richard Walker of Decoto who works in the office, Bulldog is the largest exclusive pallet manufacturer on the West Coast, and has reached the top of a highly competitive and hazardous field in its short time here.

"Bulldog Pallet Company," according to President Duff, "Constantly strives to lower costs by putting in up-to-date equipment. For example, the Equalizer Saw increased cutting capacity fifty-percent, but instead of reducing the payroll, it meant hiring more employees to take care of the increased business. Plans are now being made to enclose a storage area, to improve present facilities."

Most of the completed pallets are shipped using local truckers, another source of income for the Township area.

"It's been said," says Duff, "the first material-handling engineer was the man who invented the wheel." The use of Bulldog Pallets, and a lift truck, speeds operations in many manufacturing plants in the West.

Another source of fame for Newark, and Washington Township!

WUHS Ups 'Prep' Rules

Recent action by the Washington Union High School Board of Trustees has affected a change in the graduation requirements for students enrolled in the college preparatory program.

Normally, a student takes six courses per year and earns sixty semester periods toward graduation. Over the four-year period, a total of 240 units are possible. Becoming effective with the present freshman class (the class of 1958), college preparatory requirements will be raised from 200 to 230 semester periods. This will make the requirements the same for all students regardless of the course of study they are pursuing.

In an attempt to determine the effectiveness of the school's college preparatory program, the Board has authorized a "follow-up" survey among the W. U. H. S. graduates now enrolled in colleges and universities.

It will be the purpose of the questionnaire to determine whether the high school grades have given the students a true indication of their likely college success. Furthermore, the students will be asked to indicate how well they were individually prepared in some of the skills necessary for satisfactory college academic achievement.

Such skills would include the development of effective study habits, the use of library facilities, the ability to take class notes, the preparation of written papers, and the art of oral expression.

3 Branches In S.F. Bank Name Change

Shareholders of The San Francisco Bank last week voted to change the name of the famous 86-year-old institution, "to reflect the bank's new and widespread branch banking operation."

The stockholders gathered in a special meeting called by the bank's board of directors and unanimously adopted FIRST WESTERN BANK & TRUST COMPANY as the bank's new name. The new name will become effective immediately. Three Township banks are affected.

The institution was organized February 10, 1869, as the German Savings & Loan Society. Since 1924, however, its formal title has been The San Francisco Bank.

T. P. Coats, chairman of the bank's board of directors, pointed out that in its steady growth to an institution with more than a half billion dollars in assets the bank long ago departed from the unit bank, or 'home-city-only, one-bank" philosophy. Thus, today in addition to its main office in San Francisco, it has banking offices in 12 other Northern California cities and towns, including Alvarado, Niles and Irvington. Moreover, the bank's management has publicly announced that new offices will be opened when deemed advisable.

Coats said: "We are planning for the further growth of California and the West. This new name of ours will more accurately portray the part we hope to play in this period of expansion. We will provide additional services and facilities to be ever more useful to our customers."

In July, this year, the Central Bank of Oakland was acquired, and on September 22 the bank's total resources amounted to $543,000,000 and its deposits on that date totaled $482,000,000.

New Car Feature..."The Forward Look"

"Our dryer really gets a workout...yet it costs so little to run!"

says Mrs. Barrett Coates, Jr., 28 Plaza Drive, Berkeley, California (shown here with her daughters, Holly, Robin and Laurel and baby son, John).

"With three active girls and a baby boy to keep in clean clothes—I do a washing as often as three or four times a day. So this automatic dryer has really been a lifesaver! It's been on the go steadily since we got it, over a year ago. Yet it runs so economically, I've hardly noticed the difference in our P. G. and E. bills!"

Like Mrs. Coates, homemakers throughout California are discovering the work-saving convenience of the modern, automatic clothes dryer. And a dryer costs so little to operate, thanks to low P. G. and E. rates. Why not take full advantage of California's low-cost gas and electricity. Let an automatic dryer provide perfect year-round clothes-drying climate for you!

"BROWNIE" REPORTS
By Don Brown

Hi Ya Folks: In interviews, a reporter often comes in contact with interesting persons. That happened to me this week when I asked for the life story of Dr. R. A. Burnet Chiropractor, of 155 Dondero Way. "Curley" or "Red" as he was known, in his younger days, has had a busy life, as I learned during our conversation. Born in England in 1887 where his parents operated a department store. When he was four years of age, the store was destroyed when window decorations caught fire from gas lights. The family came to Vancouver, B. C., where Burnet later became a fireman on the Canadian Pacific Railroad. It was necessary to shovel thirty tons of coal into the locomotive each way on a short trip. "Curly" decided there surely must be some easier way to earn a living than doing that, so he moved to San Francisco and became a student of San Francisco College of Chiropractic and Drugless Physicians. He graduated in 1925 and opened his own office in Berkeley. He practiced there until 1952 when he moved to his present location. "Doc", as we call him is one of those quiet gentlemen of the old school. A fine conversationalist with a gentle way of speaking, he's a man whom I know you will be pleased to meet.

Socially Speaking: I learned of a very interesting party given by Mrs. Harriet Gittings of 145 Blacow Rd. during the Halloween holiday. It seems a number of "witches" were invited. Traditional cider and doughnuts were served for refreshments. Those present were Mrs. Edith Drazich, Jean Runnels, Jean Richards, Bev Keul, Catherine Hunsberger, Nonie Mantua, Mildred Hood, Priscilla Mathews, Sophie De Benedictis, Ruth Snow, Eva Jones, Evelyn Harris and the hostess.

Mrs. Florine Vail was the recipient of a surprise party at her home Saturday evening. Florine was thirty-five but somehow there were thirty-six candles on the cake.

I learned that the lady who arranged the party bought a box containing three dozen candles and could find no use for the extra one so just put it on the cake. But Florine, like Jack Benny, keeps a close tab on that date and gave me the correct information. Many Happy Returns of the day from all of us!

A very interesting party for Halloween was given for little Carol Jean by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Amaral of 35 Dutra Way. The occasion was the little girl's birthday. Carol Jean's guests were Beverly and Gary Oliveras, Niles; Stanley and Donnie Pimentel, Sunol; Kathy and Kenneth Dubuque, Jo Ann and Frankie Mantua, Dennis Copeland, Joan Howell, Nancy Machado, Darlene Sekigahama and Carol's brother and sister Stanley and Dianne, all of Centerville.

Following this party, Sunday evening the Amarals had a number of dinner guests in honor of the little girl's birthday. These guests were Carol's Godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zora of Oakland, Enos and Hazel Amaral of Irvington and Frank Smith of Sunol.

Travelers: Hubert, Mrs. and the little Snows, spent the last week end in Grass Valley visiting his uncle.

Glad Yer Back: Was pleased to see that my former tenant has reopened his real estate office in the Center Theatre building, meaning E. B. Hodges. Frank Gygax is associated with him in the business.

Where's the trophies: I learned that a party consisting of Joe Dutra, Ray Bettencourt and some others, returned recently from a deer hunt up in the hill country but as far as I can determine the loot was not too good.

Ambulance Rolls: Reported last week was the accident on Mission Grade where a truck got out of control and crashed into a ditch. The injured driver later succumbed in a San Jose Hospital.

Nov. 3, 12:57 P. M. the ambulance was called out near Niles where a child fell out of a car. However there were no injuries.

Nov. 5, 6:48 A. M. a sailor during the early morning fog, collided with a pole on Thornton Ave., in Newark. He was taken by ambulance to Oak Knoll Hospital with a possible fractured skull.

Nov. 5, 6:32 P. M. Highway 21, Mission Grade, A one-car accident in which the vehicle rolled onto its top. There were no serious injuries although the driver was taken to the Fairmont Hospital for a checkup.

Lions Net $767 In 'Cane' Drive

At Centerville Lion's Club's November 9 meeting, a program was presented by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. with J. N. MacKinnon explaining the use of transistors in advancing communications.

Chairman of the Club's recent White Cane Drive in Washington Township, Irving Hird, announced that $767 was collected.

The Club uses this money to provide eye-glasses and eye care for Washington Township children whose families cannot otherwise provide such care. Many school children in the Township supported the Club's recent drive by selling the White Canes.

Coming events are listed for the Lions as follows:

December 5, Annual Card Party at the Washington Union High School. Chairman of this event is Art Belshaw.

December 18, Lion's Christmas Theatre Party for the children of Washington Township at the Center Theatre. Chairman, Bill Mette.

December 28, Christmas Party for Lion members and their wives. Chairman, Paul Gygax.

January 20, Lion's convention in Reno, Nevada. About 20 members of the Centerville Club are planning to attend.

January 25, Centerville Lion's Club will meet at the Blind Center in Oakland. Chairman, Dr. Edwin M. Yee.

In 1953 the Social Service department of Children's Hospital of the East Bay had 6,507 interviews with parents of patients, and 4,556 interviews with doctors other hospital staff and community agencies.

Judy Silva Heads Little Rose Juniors

At the October meeting of Little Rose Junior Institute a pot luck supper was held. Mothers of the Juniors were guests. The idea was to acquaint the mothers with the directors.

New officers are: Joanne Rose, past president; Judy Silva, president; Billie Leah Silva, first vice-president; Emiline Rose, second vice-president; Louise Rafferty, secretary; Barbara Cunha, treasurer and Claudia Crockett, sentinel. Organist is Jo Ann Rebello.

There will be initiation of candidates on November 16, with a prize to the member who brings in the most candidates. Loretta Valles is in charge of refreshments for this event. Her committee will be, Louise Rafferty, Barbara Cunha, Billie Silva, Emiline Rose and Judy Silva.

Installation of officers will be held on December 14.

'City' Group to Meet Monday

Three towns have picked their delegates to the cityhood-bound Township Citizens' Committee, which plans to hold its first session next Monday.

Niles' representatives are Postmaster Ed Enos, and Dr. Joseph B. Enos, operator of the Mission Road Sanitarium, with a woman to be named.

Irvington's are Wallace Pond, who already is temporary chairman of the citizen group; and William F. Humpert, realtor. A woman member is to be chosen.

In Decoto, the delegates are Miss Mildred Meyers, of Dry Creek Ranch; Dr. Harold Schoenfeld, superintendent of schools, and Frank Borghi Jr., rancher and vice-president of the town's chamber of commerce.

Monday's meeting is at 8 p. m. in Washington Hi's visual education room, according to Pond, temporary chairman of the committee.

Hospital Board Rejects Offer Of Rest Home

An offer by a Niles rest home operator to sell his establishment to the Washington Township Hospital District was refused last week by district directors.

Dr. J. B. Enos had submitted a $385,000 offer to sell his Mission Road Sanatorium to be used instead of the district's proposed $1,250,000 hospital. Plans for the hospital were approved the previous week by the State.

Dr. Enos also had suggested he be hired as superintendent if his offer was accepted.

L. S. Whitaker, chairman of the board, authorized a letter to the doctor declining the bid. Directors in discussing the offer, commented that Dr. Enos' plant is not capable of expansion to the ultimate size they believe will be needed here.

Manuel Silva, chairman of a committee appointed to investigate Dr. Enos' offer, said he felt the structure was "excellent for the purpose for which it was built, but I don't think it would serve the purpose of a hospital."

Silva said that Dr. Enos estimated hospital directors could spend an additional $215,000, in addition to the purchase price, to convert the institution to a hospital.

Equipment would be additional, but Dr. Enos argued the total sum would be "considerably less" than the $1,250,000 which directors are preparing to spend on hospital construction.

He helps teachers in 54,000 classrooms

Radio was barely out of the earphone stage 26 years ago when a new program was beamed from a San Francisco studio. It featured a string trio and was based on the idea that good music, when clearly understood, could entertain and teach, too. Actually, only 72 Western schools had radio sets then, but with that performance the Standard School Broadcast went "on the air," to serve students and teachers of the West with a brand-new idea in educational aids.

Today, when Conductor Carmen Dragon lifts his baton, it's "time for the Standard School Broadcast" in over 54,000 classrooms through the West, Alaska and Hawaii. Counting children, teachers and home listeners, the program reaches a weekly audience of nearly 1½ million. That string trio has grown to a symphonic orchestra with a dramatic cast, choral group and guest vocal and instrumental artists. Selections range the musical alphabet from symphony to jazz. Each year's course follows a carefully planned outline published in a manual supplied to teachers by Standard to serve as a guide in blending music-enjoyment with subjects like art, literature, social studies. Now in its 27th year, the Standard School Broadcast is radio's oldest education program, heard today over more than 100 stations. Its goal is to help Western children gain an absorbing new interest in the world's good music and—through music—a broader knowledge and understanding of the world around them.

Listen to Standard School Broadcast every Thursday. Check your newspaper radio log for time and station

Publisher's Memories: Generation of Newspapering

By GEORGE H. OAKES

A great leader in Centerville in 1922, when Miles Smith founded the News, was John G. Mattos, who with Frank Dusterry had started the Centerville Bank.

Frank Madruga, present chief, was also a long-time member.

In the Alameda Co. Water District, which was spurred on by Chris Runckel of Niles publishing fame, he had said "the water below the farms should not be pumped out for the big cities' use." Local men who made the Water District possible were Eugene Stevenson, Manuel George of Alviso, Mr. Trenouth of Irvington, Will Patterson of Newark and others.

Jack Prouty and Louis Amaral and E. M. Grimmer in later years helped the water district.

The Union Sanitary District started in 1918, covered Newark and Centerville areas, with George Coit, its first president, who is still leader as president, on the job. Others of the original board are Fred Moses, K. McGeorge, Manuel Bernardo and Louis Ruschin.

George Botelho's undertaking business was taken over by Frank, his brother, and later by Dallas Paul.

The doctors of that era included Dr. Wills, whose daughter Helen Wills Moody later went on to become the champion tennis player of the world. Also Dr. Emerson's office was where Dallas Paul's Chapel of Palms is today. Dr. Adams had a lucrative practice also. Dr. Grimmer was outstanding at Irvington.

Sid Holman had the Chevrolet agency; Ed Rose the Ford.

The Smith and Dusterberry firm did well boring. Later Fred Dusterberry was in alone in the plumbing business. George Coit later bought the business, adding hardware.

A. S. Enos, proprietor of the Centerville Electric and Pump Co., started his business about 1926, one of the leaders in the county. Joe Jason was a leader in his line with J. & F. Metal Products, and F. E. Manufacturing Co., with well boring pipe being shipped all over the U. S. and Mexico.

HIGH SCHOOL CHANGED SITE

The high school, which used to be where Anthony Lewis' home is now on Fremont Ave., was changed in the twenties to its present location on South Main Street.

Manuel Olivera was a long-time school trustee, of over 40 years. Frank Dusterberry and John G. Mattos were trustees also. Judge Norris, later a big worker on the school board, was educated at U. C., where he was a champion pole vaulter, then came back to his home town a few years later to take his place on the school board.

Ralph Richmond was first a Justice of the Peace at Niles, then a Supervisor. His brother, Ed Richmond, had a long record as superintendent of the Water District, which sold water to the area. The office was at Centerville.

Chick (Manuel) Santos, who has been employed to handle the big Southern Pacific bridge at Dumbarton Bridge, has a record— it is said he never lost a day's work in over 35 years. Chick used to head all 4th of July parades in Centerville. For exercise he runs the Township Automotive Supply.

Adeline Santos, postmaster in that era, was succeeded by Manuel Lewis.

Joe Bauhofer really pioneered North Main Street. Folks said he built his Cloverdale Creamery too far from the center of Centerville—but the coming business district across the street should give thanks to Joe for seeing the expansion of this area where Newark and Centerville roads meet.

NEWARK HAD PAYROLLS

Fred Rogers paid big tribute in his talks with us, to the working of genius behind the Wedgewood stove plant at Newark, where James Graham and Clarence Graham took a lead. The big payroll was appreciated —The salt companies' payroll was also appreciated. But the most colorful man down that way, who inspired such improvements as the Dumbarton Bridge, was Louis Ruschin, with an able assist by School Principal Louis Musick. No barbecue of the township was complete unless Louis had charge of the steaks. The big politician at Newark was said to be Tony Caldeira, road master. John Silva, barber, was a leader also. The fire department was always tops too, with Joe Pashote succeeding pioneers. Frank Veit knows that history.

Irvington once elected a Justice of Peace Judge Warmsley.

IRVINGTON'S FINE LEADERS

Fred Rogers said there were great politicians in Irvington. Interest surrounded leaders like Otto Hirsch, Frank K. Leal and Tom Witherly in three different points of view, he said. Tom Witherly later bought the Linda Vista Park at Mission.

The glory of the vineyards and wines in the Irvington-Mission - Warm Springs area made history even then.

Anderson Academy had definitely put the town of Irvington on the map as center of higher education in earlier days, as the landmark was revered even at that time. Men were the students, and took their part in state and national history.

The high school dances before 1922 used to be held in Maple Hall, Irvington. I know, because I used to attend the dances, coming from my home in Hayward. Tom Power, the attorney, was a Democratic leader.

The record of Otto Hirsch as realtor, in locating so many industries and homeseekers, more than any other pioneer is well known. Right alongside this man are the efforts of Mrs. J. C. Whipple in bringing in many new homeseekers in this era.

Berge Mortuary at Irvington (Tom Berge at the helm) added Ben Murphy to head the Niles branch of Berge Mortuary.

MISSION SAN JOSE

Manuel Brown at the Mission San Jose was a leading politician. The Mission San Jose, restored by the Native Sons, was visited by many visitors. The Franciscan fathers laid the foundation for education in Alameda Co. in 1797.

NILES POLITICIANS

Fred Rogers' idea of Niles politicians in the twenties centered around the drinking emporiums of Jim Easterday, Billy Moore, John Bernard, and Jerry Lynch. The California Nursery was state-wide famous, with George Roeding, later his son, George Jr., carrying on. Ames Pump Co. gave employment before the twenties, and was much missed for township employment

At Niles Rev. Jones was a fine civic leader, and later as realtor with Ellsworth, brought much advertising and homeseekers to the Niles area. Wm. Ford brought out the wealth of the sand and gravel business in pioneering the industry.

Joe Shinn, Oscar Walpert, J. C. Whipple, and Overackers and Tysons and others were among the pioneers whose interest reached into the twenties. We already mentioned popular Judge Richmond.

After Judge Richmond, came Judge Joseph Silva, and later we see JudgeQuaresma on the bench

The P. C. Hansen Lumber Co. had its main yard at Niles, and in 1922 had branches in Alvarado, Decoto and Centerville. George Bonde purchased the lumber business from the great pioneer Hansen, having been his 'right-hand bower', and has carried on a great tradition. His son Geo. Bonde Jr. manages the now, very large lumberyard at Centerville. Even the wood that was used in the new newspaper office here was purchased from Hansen Lumber Co.,

Contractor Randy Griffin, of Irvington, did a swell job on the building on Fremont Ave. for Oakes and Nixon.

The Gallegos vineyards and big holdings, the Darrow vineyard later the Arata vineyards; the Witherly holdings later the Huddleston ownership; the Joe Telles ranch; Overacker holdings; Frank Cardoza big holdings, were among the biggest known properties.

In the Irvington area, Joe Cunha had big properties. His son in Mission San Jose since about 1906 is well known Tom Cunha. The Solon family had well known township leaders.

Where Bruce Michael is now, is still a show site, but Mr. Brown who put it up in the twenties, had people come from miles around to see it. It was in a class by itself.

ALVARADO HAD BIG BANKER

At Alvarado August May started his Bank of Alameda County, which later had its branches in Irvington, where Carl Christensen has been manager for over 25 years, ad at Niles, where Robert Blacow has been manager for over 25 years also. And their leadership shows May's choice of outstanding pioneer men. Also Jack Blacow, who had a similar position of manager or cashier, as it was known in those days, assisted Mr. May for over 25 years. He has retired to Palo Alto. No banker remotely came near the genius of August May, for daring in promoting a bank with such great success. The Central Bank bought it from him about 12 years ago.

Holly Sugar Mill, the first successful sugar-beet factory in the U. S., still has given big employment. The old Union City pumping plant was closed down about this era. The big structure now houses Dekidos garage. John Ralph and Tony Lee and Harvey's store (now Sam Dinsmore's) are pioneers.

Farley Granger, political whip of a former era, along with the Riverside Hotel, had moved to San Leandro. Harveys, Logans, McKeowns, Farleys, May and other pioneers had big holdings still. Also Fred Wiegman's properties and his civic leadership was appreciated.

The first county seat is surely one thing that has always put Alvarado on the map.

Leslie Salt Co. had one of its biggest plants here in 1922, and shipped salt by SouthernPacific.

W. B. Williams and Burdette Williams, were among the big growers of the twenties, with Lloyd Bailey coming up later. The Alvarado Vegetable Growers shipped cauliflower in big quantities from Hall Station.

DECOTO

At Decoto the Masonic Home still grew into prominence for good service to Masonic guests, and grew with many added wings for more guests. The postmaster T. Olson, had the grocery store also. Hansen's branch lumber yard, Joe Pierce's cannery were well known. The wellknown Henry May of Dry Creek, near Niles-Decoto highway, and Harry Searles, and Decoto, Zwissig, Whipple and the Decoto family were among the largest landholders.

ALVISO AREA

The school of Alviso has always kept its identity, and although not a large enrollment, was known for fine leadership. Elsie Madruga was principal for many years. Manuel George, deputy county assessor, was one of its best known citizens.

Louis Amaral and brother had the garage for many years. Louis retired, taking a big interest in public affairs, and his brother carried on at the shop for many years. (Later the Dodge sales agency of Rolly Delp was located).

CENTERVILLE LANDOWNER

John Stevenson, our landlord at the old News office, next to the Bank of America at Centerville, belongs to a pioneer family who have agricultural and business properties, and helped to carve out the history of the valley as progressive people.

CHURCHES OF TOWNSHIP

Pioneer Holy Ghost Church at Centerville; St. Joseph's at Mission; St. Edward's, Newark; and St. Anne's Church, Alvarado; also the other Catholic churches at Niles and Decoto, have carried on their fine work.

The Township churches are also in the limelight this era. The Centerville Presbyterian Church, possibly the oldest Protestant church in the township, has a graveyard next to it, that has names of pioneer laid away around a hundred years ago. Among them is the name of Beard. The Episcopal church served here also, as a pioneer. The Presbyterian Community Church, the Presbyterian church at Alvarado, and the Congregational Church at Niles, with Rev. Jones, were well known. The Christian Science Church at Niles arrived about this era. Decoto had a Presbyterian Community Church.

LOOKING AHEAD—at Irvington

Robert Wright, realtor, recalls the pioneer businessmen, as taking a big part in township prosperity. The fire department and the Odd Fellows buildings, one of the oldest land marks, are carrying on history. And the some hundred children going to school then—is different from the present claim of some 3,000 ppils who will have need of 10 school houses in three years' time, on account of nine subdivisions building homes at Irvington this year. And Centerville will begin to continue her home growth with adoption of the drainage zoning that she, and Newark and Niles must put through soon.

I may have missed many names, on account of touching highlights, so please excuse this.

OUR BUILDING GAVE STREET COMMERCIAL AREA GROWTH

I purchased the Manuel Simas property at 177 Fremont Ave. from Manuel Simas' daughters, Betty and Alice. A dream I had has come true, thanks to the planning of the building by my son, City Attorney George Paul Oakes of Hayward.

Now open Friday until 6:00 P.M.

Ford's newest entry into the high-styled car field is the Fairlane Crown Victoria, (shown above) with a tiara-like chrome strip arched over the top of the car. The Crown Victoria has a wrap-around windshield, and is under five feet in overall height. Dual exhausts, which provide extra power are standard on this new model. It also is available with a transparent roof over the driver's compartment.

New Fords On Display At Joe Adams Agency Friday

Ford will introduce an entirley new line -- the high-styled Fairline series — as the leader of its four lines of 1955 passenger cars to be shown in 6400 dealers' showrooms across the nation on Friday, November 12, according to Centerville Dealer Joe Adams.

Modern styling inspired by Ford's new Thunderbird personal car distinguishes the new Ford's says Adams. Retaining definite characteristics which have won Ford style leadership, the 1955 Fords also have a wrap-around windshield and a new, lower silhouette. The Crown Victoria - a new model is the first Ford sedan under five feet in over-all height. Says Adams:

"Ford which offered the first V-8 engines in the low price field in 1932 and has built 14 million V-8s since, introduces for the first time three new engines:

"A high compression Y-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and an 8.5 to 1 compression ratio.

"A powerful Y-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and a 7.6 to 1 compression ratio.

"An improved 6 cylinder I-block engine of 223 cubic inch displacement and an 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

"Dual exhausts, which provide extra power, are standard on all Fairlane V-8 and station wagon models.

"Ford's new high compression engine available only with Fordomatic transmission in the Fairlane series, has a four-barrel carburetor with automatic choke and special intake manifold; special vacuum controlled distributor; high compression cylinder heads and high capacity radiator. Ford's popular V-8 and 6 cylinder engines are available with any of the 16 Ford models for 1955."

Centerville C of C Lends Ear To Rezoning Pleas

Two rezoning requests were granted conditional approval by the Centerville Chamber of Commerce Monday.

Both issues are to come before the Alameda County Planning Commission.

Mohr Bros. Hayward builders, received a "yes" recommendation to put a medical center opposite the Main street grammar school in an area presently zoned for homes. Attached, however, was the proviso that the rear portion not be used as a sump for drainage from a proposed tract across the street.

Kroll Builders had asked a favorable letter from the Chamber on their proposal to put some 150 homes between Central and Baine avenues, in a spot now zoned for industry. The Chamber's zoning committee, headed by James R. Meyer, instead reminded the planners that it originally recommended that half the site be zoned for homes, and left the subject of the rest of the tract up to the commission.

The Kroll tract map originally had been okehed by the County, but before construction of houses started, Centerville was zoned, and building permits were denied.

The chamber wants Kroll lots held to a minimum of 6000 sq. feet. Kroll has planned them for 5400.

Mohr Bros. problem on drainage arose because the firm optioned the back of its 500-foot-deep lot for a drainage sump to Kvistad Construction Co., which has plans to build a subdivision east of Main Street.

The chamber's approval was given with the proviso that neighbors okeh the clinic.

Third Son Born

Proud parents of a third son are Mr. and Mrs. James Sacco Jr., of 236 Eugene St., Irvington.

The eight-pound youngster was born Friday in San Jose Hospital. He has two older brothers, Gary and Jerry.

Veterans Day Is Today In Township

Veterans Day in Washington Township will be observed by a part-holiday and by a memorial dinner under American Legion sponsorship.

Schools, postoffices and county offices will close today, November 11, in observance of the federal holiday. Banks and most stores will remain open.

A veterans' committee headed by Clifford Rogers will take part in a parade through downtown Oakland this afternoon.

Tonight at 7 o'clock Legionnaires and veteran guests will partake of turkey dinner in the Niles Veterans Memorial Building.

Dooley Installed By Sportsmen At Niles Banquet

Hostess to 180 members and their guests on November 6 for the Niles Sportsmen's Club Installation Dinner was the American Legion Ladies Auxiliary. The event was held at Veterans' Memorial Building, Niles.

Officers installed were: Joe Dooley, president; Clarence Musgrove, vice-president; Bob Lowe, secretary; Glen Mohn, treasurer; Joe Castro, sergeant-at-arms; Board of Directors: Past President William Pine, Anthony Fields, Joe Pine, Joe Perry, and Clarence Pine.

Edward Busalak, president of the Associated Sportsmen of California, installed the officers. Art Evans of District Council No. 3 was master of ceremonies.

Sportsmen's membership pins were presented to past presidents Joe Pine, Musgrove, Al Gamba, Perry and William Pine.

Yule Lights Plea Yields $160

Irvington businessmen raised $160 in five minutes on Tuesday to guarantee their town Christmas lights again this year.

Committeemen reported to the local chamber of commerce it would take $425 to renovate 12 strings of lights and buy five new ones conforming to State regulations. The new strings cost $30 apiece.

Allan Hirsch led off by donating one string. He was followed by Chamber President A. E. Alameda. Don Colvin of Sunnyacres Development Co. offered $50. A dozen more members chimed in. Total: $160.

There was $200 in the chamber's lights fund, so Alameda gave a tentative go-ahead and asked Wallace Pond and Dr. E. M. Grimmer to raise the balance from other merchants.

This Week's Question: WOULD YOU RATHER SEE THE FREEWAY MADE INTO THREE LANES EACH WAY FROM SAN LORENZO TO OAKLAND, OR EXTENDED TO WARM SPRINGS?

"The highway from Mount Eden to Warm Springs is almost impossible to drive on, and the sooner the freeway's completed, the sooner the problem will be solved." Mrs. Mildred Logan, P.O. Box 295, Alvarado.

"I'd like it wide as possible, all the way." Harold Cranston, 1658 Cornell Avenue, Decoto.

"It would be better to build it to Warm Springs, even though it is only two lanes. Safety-wise, it should be widened, however." Earl T. Gabbett, 166 Towers Way, Centerville.

"I think that having it go all the way to Warm Springs would be best." Gilbert Goss, Route 1, Box 528B, Niles.

"I think people would benefit more if it were three lanes all the way to San Jose." Mrs. Filbert Silva, R.F.D. Box 221, Irvington.

"We'd rather have the freeway ourselves. It would be much better than making it three lanes." Mrs. Ruth Hicks, 216 Vallejo Street, Mission San Jose.

"I think it definitely needs to be widened, but it should be completed first." Mrs. Evelyn Jensen, 748 Cherry Road, Newark.

"I'd be in favor of it going to Warm Springs, and if they have any money later on they could widen it." Howard Vincent, 203 Decoto Road, Decoto.

"I'm one-hundred percent in favor of extending the freeway all the way from Oakland to San Jose." Leonard Rose, P.O. Box 100, Warm Springs.

"For us it would be more beneficial to have it completed to Warm Springs, as it helps us if we wanted to go either way." Mrs. Wanda Sharpe, 871 Olive, Newark.

"We definitely need it in the Township, and it would certainly save on the auto accidents we've been having around here." Mrs. Gloria Branson, 22 Allen Court, Centerville.

"I think it would be better to have it complete all the way with two lanes, and get a third lane later." Kenneth Hampton, 283 Olive Avenue, Mission San Jose.

"I think that having it go to Warm Springs would be best." Mrs. Zepha Shields, 508 Broadway, Irvington.

Kiwanis See How Transistor Works

Newark Kiwanis Club members watched a "Buck Rogers" demonstration at their meeting last week.

The futuristic note was introduced by Ted Libby, Pacific Telephone Company demonstrator.

Amply supplied with gadgets, Libby held the attention of the group with demonstrations of the transistor — a tiny new device designed to do much of the work of its counterpart, the vacuum tube.

Unlike the vacuum tube, the transistor has no glass envelope, vacuum, or filament. It responds immediately to electrical impulses, does not throw off any heat, and can be packed with its mates in a cramped space. Libby showed the adaptability of the six year old development of Bell Laboratories. He used such transistor-equipped items as a vest pocket radio, wrist watch transmitter, handy-talkie, and oscillator.

In his concluding remarks, Libby said the transistor could reduce the size of telephone plant installations of the future and cut the cost of telephone service.

Libby's appearance at the meeting was arranged for by Program Chairman Manuel Rose.

Have you given any thought a special "thanks" to give on Thanksgiving day? If not, you better hurry because time is running out . . . out for millions of fat and tasty gobblers too. That's the same week that you'll be reading your Thursday News-Register on Wednesday . . . if everything goes well.

Things weren't going so well for some family last week because their young child's two-wheel bicycle (small) either was lost, strayed or otherwise wound up abandoned on George street. It was rescued by a kindly lady and she says none of her neighbors are missing a bike. . . if your child's bike is missing call her at Newark 3-3753 and identify it.

We see by the election returns that California is still loaded with Democratic Republicans . . congrats to the incumbent directors of the Washington Township Hospital District. . .

Last week we noticed a sign painter busily weilding his brush in the shopping center and being of an inquisical nature (snoopy) we hustled over to see, Sycamore Hall, dat's a cookin.' The largest area in the center was in the process of becoming a meeting hall with tile floor, heaters, sink, stove and etceteras, and with all that convenient parking it will be a popular hall.

The gals we felt sorry for are the election crews. . . man alive, with a ballot as long as last year's dresses it is a wonder they ever finished tallying. . . All night is a long time to work for a couple of bucks and it makes us wonder when Alameda County will discard the hoss'n' buggy elections and get modern voting machines.

Local families of Ford employees got their first view of the tremendous Ford plant in Milpitas last Sunday. They were impressed with their new home and enjoyed refreshments in the plant cafeteria.

The Girl Scout mothers held their first meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Judson Taylor, leader of Troop 76. The mothers planned the Scout activities for the year and decided the girls will work for their needlecraft badges. Mothers present besides Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Silver included: Mrs. Dick Lynch, Mrs. Art Cline, Mrs. Antone Souza, Mrs. Fred Carpenter, and Mrs. Manuel Corchero.

The Baby Express pulled into Permanente Hospital station on October 30 and a precious package weighing seven pounds, seven ounces was deposited there for William and Frances De La Cruz. They and their two daughters, Judy and Lee Ann, are rehearsing "Rock-a-Dry Baby" to sing to the new man of the house, William Richard.

That was a funderful party Margaret Stewart gave in honor of her hubby, Clarence, and Jeff Prock of Porterville when they doubled up on birthdays recently. Thirty-one guests got in on the festivities which were a surprise to the men. . . it is hard to keep track of things a woman can cook up while a man is at work.

New sprayer fights cable-boring beetles. Astounding as it may seem, there's a kind of beetle that can eat right through the lead cover of a telephone cable. The beetle's so tiny it's hard to see. But the hole it leaves can let harmful moisture inside a cable. To prevent this, telephone people use a special repellent, which used to be brushed on cables entirely by hand. But the new sprayer—pulled by a man on the ground—puts the repellent on three times faster. By saving valuable time, this cuts the cost of guarding cables. So it's a big help in bringing you good telephone service that's high in value and low in price. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

ISSUE: $200,000.00 consisting of 200 bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered 1 to 200, inclusive, all dated December 15, 1954.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on June 15th and December 15th in each year except that the first instalment of interest is payable December 15, 1955, for the period from December 15, 1954, to December 15, 1955. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-quarter of one per cent. per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order, from lower to higher, $10,000.00 principal amount on December 15th in each of the years from and including 1955, to and including 1974.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at the office of the Treasurer of Alameda County, in the City of Oakland, California, out of Bond Fund Annex No. 10 Issue of 1954 into which is to be deposited the proceeds of taxes limited to the taxable property in said annexed territory.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by the District. Such bonds are registerable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds are authorized for the purpose of raising money for the acquisition and construction of sewers, manholes, lampholes, and sewerage collection system, together with land, easements and rights of way in the territory annexed to said Union Sanitary District and designated as "ANNEX NO. 10," by Resolution and Order No. 10347 of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, California, adopted March 9, 1954.

SECURITY: Said bonds are not obligations of UNION SANITARY DISTRICT, as such, but the Sanitary Board of said District has power and is obligated to cause annual ad valorem taxes to be levied upon all property in the territory annexed to said District and designated as "ANNEX NO. 10," by Resolution and Order No. 10347 of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, California, adopted March 9, 1954, for the payment of both the principal of and interest on said bonds without limitation of rate or amount.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of Messrs. ORRICK, DAHLQUIST, HERRINGTON & SUTCLIFFE, of San Francisco, California, approving the validity of said bonds will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BID: The bonds will be awarded to the highest and best bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the District. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the District.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: The District reserves the right in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Sanitary Board will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given to the Board notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the Treasurer of Alameda County in Oakland, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be December 15, 1954.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the District shall fail to tender the bonds for delivery on or before 60 days from the date of sale, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be unconditional for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Sanitary Board of UNION SANITARY DISTRICT and endorsed "Proposal for Annex No. 10 Issue of 1954 Bonds, to be issued by Union Sanitary District."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000, drawn on a bank or trust company authorized to transact and transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of Alameda County to secure the District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the District by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by any bidder.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Further information relative to the financial condition of the District will be furnished to any bidder upon request.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the District, or the title of the officers to their respective offices.

NIBBLED TO DEATH?

With the flick of a pen, a northern piece of our Township this week became part of the city of Hayward. The story of how it happened is a warning to all of us. For the end is not yet.

Four years ago, before the first of the corporations that built Hillview Crest started surveying lots, it became obvious that the new subdivision would need important supplies of water and a sure means of waste disposal. So the subdividers went to the Citizens Utilities Company, which owns the franchise to supply water to Niles and Decoto. Could Citizens Utilities supply Hillview Crest? No, came the answer. There was neither a tank on the hillside nor a pipe in the ground large enough to serve 600 new homes.

Then the subdividers asked the Decoto Sanitary District: Can you supply sewers for Hillview Crest? Again came the answer: no. Our treatment plant already is too small for our immediate needs.

The subdividers had to have sewers and water. So now they turned to Hayward. And Hayward was ready to oblige. Hillview sits on a slight rise, sloping gently toward Hayward's treatment plant. Sewers were therefore no problem. And water was provided by running pipes from the nearest city supply.

Thus oriented toward Hayward, Hillview dwellers began to think of themselves as part of the town, ignoring the accident of geography that situated them inside Washington Township. The allegiance was accentuated when Hayward gave them city mail delivery and a Hayward postoffice address.

So the matter remained for awhile. Townshippers felt uneasy, but told themselves Hillview was a long distance from Hayward, that our boundaries were safe. Then came the logical sequel.

Two big builders cast their eyes on the lands just past Hillview. Part of the property lay in the Township. That of course was no consideration. With the best deal uppermost in their minds, the builders went to the water company again, and to the sewer district. The answers were the same: no facilities to serve you.

The subdividers then turned to Hayward. By this time, the city had adopted a firm policy — no service without annexation. But it was obvious that Hayward wanted the two big tracts and their 2000 homes. The city waived its former annexation fee, hundreds of dollars per acre, to entice the two developments into its limits. Last Friday, the deed was done, and Hayward's city limits slipped into the Township.

Meantime, some Hillview Cresters, dissatisfied with high service rates paid to Hayward during this period of limbo, began exploring annexation. Again Hayward officialdom was sympathetic. The conversations may lead to another loss to us, especially since Hillview now immediately adjoins the city's limits, and a move Hayward-wards would be easy and probably cheap.

So what? Is this bad? Measured by what it has been willing to do to keep Hillview Crest, is the Township likely to be concerned over loss of new tracts, or even Hillview, to our northern neighbor?

Well, Hillview isn't such an asset in one way: homes alone hardly pay their share of Township taxes. However Hillview kids do attend Township grammar and high schools. Township taxes help pay for that. Annexation won't alter the situation — it will only force the rest of the Decoto School District and the Washington High School District to help pay for educating Hayward children.

Then there's this: across the tracks from Hillview lies flat and fertile Township farmland, ideal for industry all the way to Alvarado. Hayward needs more industrial land to lighten its tax burdens, because erratic planning in Hayward has left so little land for factories. This plum has come measureably closer with annexation of the two tracts-to-be. Loss of the factory lands to Hayward would be a major blow to Decoto's tax economy.

Thinking ahead a little, absorption of Hillview Crest into Hayward will make the 'Cresters the tiniest of frogs in the biggest of puddles. Water and sewer bills may sway the area to annex, all the same.

Would it be a tragedy for the Township to lose itself in Hayward, one of the State's fastest-growing towns? We say yes! Such a course of piecemeal surrender would make our beautiful area the unwilling heir to all Hayward's postwar growing pains, its slum-suburbs, its strife-torn politics. We have our own destiny to work out here, and it is a destiny bright with promise. Township dwellers can live in a greenbelt garden, free from slums, smog and traffic jams, if only we have the courage to will it.

We can be master of our fate if we wish, in a fashion given only to a few nowadays. Therefore with firm resolution to govern ourselves, we must act quickly to obtain home rule of our own choosing, halt the southward invasion of our territory, and refuse to be nibbled to death by Hayward's ducks.

The Trapper Trapped? Russ Osborne, the dynamo who runs the Center Theatre, tried for months to get the county to paint a red stripe on the curb in front of his boxoffice. No dice, so Russ painted it himself. One afternoon last week he had to park there himself. So guess who got the first traffic tag in the new zone? That's right.
